---	---	--

Cheney Pension Scheme
To:	Mrs Adrienne Morris
Of:	XXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
Date:	23 October 2006

TAKE NOTICE that the Pensions Regulator of Napier House, Trafalgar Place, Brighton BN1 4DW (“The Regulator”) has made a determination on 18 October 2006

Note on point of procedure

The Determinations Panel first considered this review on 20 September 2006. On 29 September 2006 a further letter from Mrs Adrienne Morris dated 27 July 2006, correctly addressed to the Regulator’s case worker, arrived back at the Regulator’s office. This letter was first received at the Regulator’s office on 28 July 2006 but was forwarded, in error, to the National Insurance Contributions Office (NICO) at Newcastle.

The Determinations Panel considered that they were under both a procedural and statutory duty to consider the representations of directly affected parties but for the reasons outlined above, Mrs Morris’s letter was not considered on the 20 September 2006.

In view of the aforementioned duty to consider such representations the Determinations Panel determined to hold a complete rehearing on 18 October 2006 to take account of the letter of 27 July 2006.

1.	Determination
1.1	Mrs Adrienne Morris applied for a review of the determinations, made by the Occupational Pensions Regulatory Authority (Opra), on 19 September and 19 November 2001 in relation to the following financial penalties imposed on her:  (a) 19 September 2001: £500 for failure to appoint a scheme auditor; and

	(b) 19 November 2001: £5,000 for failure to obtain and consider proper advice on the question of whether investments undertaken after 28 April 2000 were satisfactory. The review in respect of the determination of 19 September 2001 was subsequently withdrawn by Mrs Morris on 5 January 2002.
1.2	The decision made by Opra on 19 November 2001 in respect of the financial penalty imposed of £5,000 for failure to obtain and consider proper advice on the question of whether investments undertaken after 28 April 2000 were satisfactory, was upheld. The Determinations Panel did not consider that a further review application in respect of 1.1(a) had been properly made.

2.	Procedure Followed:
2.1	By its Review Statement of Facts (RSoF) the Pensions Regulator gave notice that it proposed to proceed with the above review of the decisions made by Opra on 19 September and 19 November 2001 pursuant to the application for a review received from Mrs Adrienne Morris.
2.2	The Regulator determined that the following party is directly affected by this determination: 1. Mrs Adrienne Morris In her role as a former trustee of the scheme (referred to as “the directly affected party”) This directly affected party was entitled to make representations to the Pensions Regulator about the determination.
2.3	Following the issue of the Review Statement of Facts Mrs Morris exercised her right to make representations to the Pensions Regulator including the letter dated 27 July 2006.
2.4	The Pensions Regulator has taken those representations into account and has considered those materials carefully but has nevertheless determined to take the action as detailed in 7 below for the reasons set out in 6 below.

3.	Relevant Statutory Provisions/Legislation
	For details see Appendix 1 at page 8.

4.	Relevant Guidance
	In relation to whether the Determinations Panel was now to consider a review in respect of one, or both, financial penalties imposed by Opra, the legal adviser confirmed to the panel that whilst there was a general discretion under Regulation 3(4) of the Occupational Pensions Regulatory Authority (Determinations and Review Procedure) Regulations 1997 to allow for an application out of time to extend the time limit for making an application for a review, it was contingent upon an application having been made.

5.	Background to the Review
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. On 19 September 2001 an Opra determination committee found that there had been a failure by Mrs Adrienne Morris to take all such steps as are reasonable to appoint a scheme auditor within three months of the resignation of the previous scheme auditor. A financial penalty of £500 was imposed on Mrs Morris for this failure.</li> <li>2. On the same date there was also a finding in respect of Mrs Morris in that she had failed to obtain and consider proper advice on the question of whether investments undertaken after 28 April 2000 were satisfactory, having regard to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. the need for diversification of investments, in so far as appropriate to the circumstances of the scheme, and</li> <li>b. the suitability to the scheme of investments of the description of investment proposed and of the investment proposed as an investment of that description</li> <li>c. the principles contained in the statement of investment principles as required by section 36(3) and contrary to section 36(8) of the Pensions Act 1995.</li> </ol> </li> <li>4. Mrs Morris was informed that the committee was considering imposing a fine of £5,000 on her in respect of this breach.</li> <li>5. On 19 November 2001 the determination committee imposed a financial penalty of £5,000 on Mrs Morris and stated that the committee had noted the representations received from her but did not consider there was any new evidence which would cause the committee to change its decision.</li> <li>6. On the same date Mrs Morris was prohibited from being a trustee of the Cheney Pension Scheme and disqualified from being a trustee of all occupational pension schemes.</li> <li>7. Mrs Morris originally applied for a review in 2001 and this was set down for an oral hearing in June 2002.</li> <li>8. On 5 January 2002 Mrs Morris wrote to Opra stating that she had decided to withdraw her application for a review in respect of the financial penalty for the failure to appoint a scheme auditor finding.</li> </ol>

6.	Facts and Matters Relied Upon
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Determinations Panel did not feel that the applicant had provided sufficient and detailed evidence of her means. In particular:               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) she had failed to state whether or not she had any further accounts in this country or abroad;</li> <li>(b) she had not provided a statement of her Abbey National account;</li> <li>(c) she had not provided full details of her Lloyds bank statement (there were pages missing)</li> <li>(d) she had not provided full information in relation to other finances XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX.</li> </ol> </li> <li>2. Mrs Morris' failure to comply with the law constituted a serious breach of trust.</li> <li>3. The consequences of these breaches had been:               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) to put the scheme at risk;</li> <li>(b) to cause a huge dissipation of scheme assets.</li> </ol> </li> <li>4. The panel were of the view that any appeal against the penalty of £500 for failure to appoint a scheme auditor was barred because of the regulations, but even if it had not been, the panel would not have reduced it in view of points 1-3 above.</li> </ol>

7.	Conclusion: Details of Determination
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. That the financial penalty of £5,000 imposed for failure to obtain and consider proper advice on the question of whether investments undertaken after 28 April 2000 were satisfactory should be upheld.</li> <li>2. The financial penalty of £500 imposed for failure to appoint a scheme auditor remains unchanged in view of the points made in 'Facts and matters Relied Upon'.</li> <li>3. If The Pensions Regulator has not heard that you have applied to the Pensions Regulator Tribunal for a reference within 28 days of sending you this Determination Notice, by 23 November 2006, then the financial penalties of £5,500 become payable within 56 days of sending you this Determination Notice, by 21 December 2006, and your cheque for this amount should be sent to Determinations Support, the Pensions Regulator, Napier House, Trafalgar Place, Brighton BN1 4DW by 21 December 2006.</li> </ol>
